

Together Everyone Achieves More

Dear Parents and Carers,

We hope you had a lovely half term holiday despite the dreadful weather we experienced. We would like to offer our huge thanks to Mr Copeland, our site supervisor for his hard work over the weekend in getting our site safe for everyone to return to school on Monday. A big thank you to him and Ms Rabicano for their ongoing hard work around the school.

A big thank you for all of your support with our after school clubs and for being on time to collect your children. Please remember children can only be collected at 4:30pm as we do not have enough staff available to allow collection earlier than that. Thanks also goes to all our staff for running the clubs.

As you will know we are celebrating World Book Day next week and are inviting children to dress in their pyjamas and share their favourite stories. Children will receive a £1 World Book Day voucher which can be used to buy a special World Book Day book, or to get £1 off a book of their choice. If you have never been, Newham Bookshop on Barking Road has a great selection of children's books.

Mr Harris and Mrs Mansfield

WOW Badge competition

We are inviting all the children to design a Walk on Wednesday badge, with this year's theme being "Walk through time". This could be a design inspired by prehistoric creatures like dinosaurs, ancient societies such as Romans and Egyptians, or events that had made the world a better place. The designs should be bright and colourful, and will be judged by our Junior Travel Advisors, and the best three will be submitted to the competition. We have sent out the template on Studybugs. If you are unable to print it out, you can come to the main office to pick one up. Entries should be handed to the main office by the Friday 11th of March.

Spring arts competition

For International Women's Day on Tuesday 8th March, we will be doing an art competition as part of our own #BreakTheBias campaign here at Curwen. Children are invited to create a piece of artwork celebrating the achievements of women or raising awareness against bias. You can find more information about accepted media, how to enter the competition, and additional inspiration in the message sent on StudyBugs, and on Google Classroom.

The artwork should have your child's name and class printed clearly on the bottom right if possible. This should be handed in to their class teacher by Friday 11th of March, so they can be passed onto our Art Ambassadors to be judged.

A first, second, and third place winner will be selected from each of the EYFS, KS1, lower KS2, and upper KS2 phase groups.

On Thursday the 3rd of March, we will be celebrating World Book Day. On the day, children can come in their pyjamas and will be treated to hot chocolate which will be given to all classes. The children (and teachers!) need to decorate a potato as a book character of their choice, and will get to discuss their creation with the class. Finally, classes will be joining online story sessions or webinars hosted by authors throughout the day for the children to enjoy.
