

Together Everyone Achieves More

Dear Parents and Carers

It has certainly been a busy week at Curwen!! It has been lovely to see so many of the children getting out and about and enjoying a huge range of educational visits this week. It was also lovely to see lots of families attend our annual Inclusion visit to Chessington World of Adventures!! Huge thanks go to you all for supporting us by paying for visits, and also to all of those parents and carers that volunteer to come along. Huge thanks must however go to the staff. As we are sure you can imagine, organising such events takes a lot of time and effort and we do appreciate all of the staff for their support with this. Thanks also to our lovely kitchen team who have made hundreds of sandwiches this week! We hope that you and the children think the effort is worth it - there have certainly been lots of happy faces this week.

As you will have heard in the news, one of the teacher unions has announced further strike action on Wednesday 5th July and Friday 7th July. This will cause disruption to our ability to operate on these days, so please do make alternative arrangements for childcare. Unfortunately Wednesday 5th July was our planned sports day for years 1-6. We have tried to rearrange this on a different date, but are unable to secure the park. We are committed to ensuring our children get the chance to compete and for families to come and watch, so this year we will hold all our sports days in the playground. We will confirm the dates and send these out as soon as possible. All children will participate in sports day whether a family member can attend or not, so please do not worry if you are not able to come and cheer them on.

Next week, many of our staff and families are celebrating Eid-ul-Adha. We hope that all of our Muslim community have a wonderful time coming together with friends and family. If your child will be absent from school please report their absence on the day of Eid via Studybugs. This is recorded as a religious observance day. Eid Mubarak to you all.

We are now taking donations for our summer fair, so please have a clear out and drop anything off to school! We welcome books, toys, uniform and brick-a-brack in a good condition. We have already had several parents offering to bake cakes with us - thank you - and will welcome donations of food nearer the time. The school fair will be on Friday 14th July. Please come along and help raise money for the school!

Have a lovely weekend!

- As high temperatures continue, please remember to apply sunscreen before school and provide a hat and a water bottle.
- Put your child's name on their extra clothing, so that it can easily be recovered in the case of it being lost.

Remember to tune in to the TTLT Annual Awards on Friday 30th June at 1.30pm!! Full details will be shared next week!
