

CURWEN WEEKLY

Together Everyone Achieves More

Dear Parents and Carers

It is feeling very Christmassy with the decorations and various Christmas rehearsals going on across the school. Don't forget that we have our EYFS and KS1 concerts next week. Please remember to be on time for these as latecomers will not be admitted. We also expect our audience to stay until the end as we have had very upset children due to audiences getting up and leaving halfway through. We also have Christmas jumper day and the children's Christmas lunch on Wednesday. On Friday, please do join us for our Christmas fair! To try and avoid congestion, we are having lots of the activities in the classrooms and will send you a map on Friday so you know where to find everything. We also ask that you avoid bringing buggies and pushchairs wherever possible.

Don't forget the dates and times are available on our website: <https://www.curwen.newham.sch.uk/page/?title=Christmas+Countdown&pid=467>

Thank you to everyone that managed to come in this week for the year 1, or year 4 Big Outcomes or for the Science afternoon. After reading the feedback we are so pleased that you enjoy seeing your child sharing their learning. We are always very impressed with how amazing they are too! We hope that you found out something new during our Science afternoon. It was very impressive to see the children right across the school putting their skills and knowledge to good effect. Our choir also wowed corporate business people at a concert in Tower Hill on Wednesday. Please do see the pictures – they were amazing as always.

We are speeding towards the end of term, so a few requests. PLEASE check through our lost property (in the glass walk-through doors near the year 5 classrooms) to check if there is anything belonging to your child. We dispose of so much every term and it really must be costing you a fortune. We will be selling secondhand uniform at the fair if you need anything. Please also remember that on Wednesday 20th December that we finish at 1:00pm. Please ensure your child is collected on time, or arrangements are made if they are home alone.

We look forward to seeing you in next week. Have a lovely weekend.

Mr Harris and Mrs Mansfield

Congratulations to Curwen's Choir for putting on a fantastic performance at the Marsh McLennon Christmas service. The C.E.O of Marsh McLennon, Chris Lay, was in attendance and he was very impressed by our children! Thank you to Helen Lam, our Parent Governor for the invite, Maria Gorman for facilitating the trip and of course our parent helpers and wonderful children and staff!
