

CURWEN WEEKLY

Together Everyone Achieves More

Dear Parents and Carers

We hope that you had a lovely half term holiday and enjoyed your time off, despite the weather! It has been lovely having the children back in school and seeing them working hard. It is amazing to see all of the progress they have made over the year, and it is really lovely to see how enthusiastic they are.

This week we held our annual Curwen TTLT Awards in school. Staff across the school nominated children in a range of categories, as well as staff, volunteers and external providers. On Wednesday we had an extremely enjoyable hour celebrating all of their wonderful support, efforts, talents and achievements. We hope that, if you came along, you enjoyed it as much as we did! Our school winner in each category will go through to the TTLT Awards which will be livestreamed on Friday 28th June.

Today we would like to thank our School Council who have worked hard to organise fundraising opportunities to raise money for the London Air Ambulance, which the TTLT Pupil Parliament have chosen as their charity of the year. We would like to thank everyone for supporting this cause. We will let you know how much has been raised.

Have a lovely weekend

Mr Harris and Mrs Mansfield

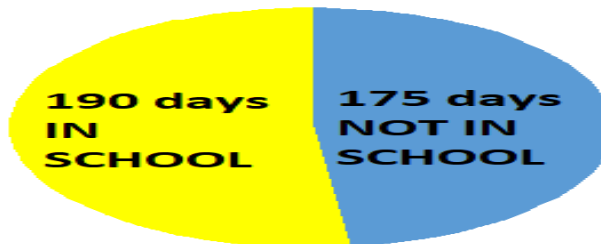

Please take extra care with vapes when dropping off /collecting your children. Nursery children have found 2 in their playground this week that adults have dropped when passing through.

Thank you.

Last week, a group of enthusiastic mathematicians from Year 4 (Bethel, Claire, Kairui, Joshua and Anas) took part in the very first Wondermaths challenge. They competed against other schools across London in a range of different mathematical challenges that tested their resilience, innovation, communication, leadership and most importantly, their teamwork! The team worked very hard in preparation for the competition, dedicating most of their lunch times to improving their skills. Although we didn't get the outcome we were hoping for, the team had a great time and lots of fun at the competition! Well done.
