

Dear Parents and Carers

This week our choir has been out for our launch for 'Festival of Voices' which they will be performing at Hackney Empire in June. We hope that the workshop was inspiring, and look forward to hearing their rehearsals. Thank you to all of our lovely volunteers that come along to help us with educational visits. Year 1 and Nursery have also been out on visits this week, all of which we hope has helped enhance their learning.

Next week is a busy week, with our in-person Parents' Evenings on Wednesday and Thursday. We are delighted that there will be tasters of our school dinners as well as our Book Fair. We will have information to share with you about the children's learning in school, our data checking sheets and we are going to share information about Arbor. The Book Fair will also be in the playground before and after school. Please remember that there will be no after school clubs on Wednesday or Thursday (6 o'clock club will run as usual, but must be booked). We hope that you will all take the opportunity to speak to your child's teacher and look at their amazing work in their books.

All of the year group website updates have been added to the website, so do have a look at what the children have been doing! If you click on 'Our Classes' and then select your child's year group, then 'Termly Update and Photos'.

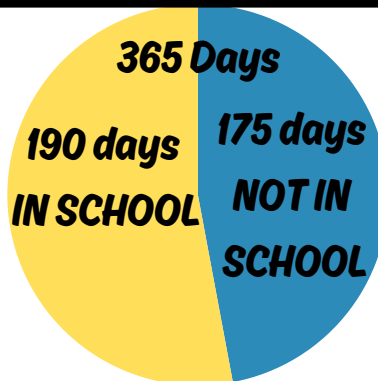

Have a lovely weekend and we will see you next week for Parents' Evening!

TOOTHBRUSHING PARENTS' WORKSHOP

School Council Trip to City Hall

Curwen is back at City Hall again! This time members of Curwen's School Council all went to City Hall. We learnt about 2,000 years' history of London going back to the time of the Roman Empire all the way to London in the present day. During all that time, London experienced lots of interesting events such as the Great Stink! School Council also found out that the London Assembly is in charge of policing, transport and housing in London. We also sat in the Debating Chamber and thought of what we would do if we were Mayor for the day. It was such an interesting trip!
