

Dear Parents and Carers

It has been nice to see some more pleasant weather, let's hope it continues! This week we have been very excited to celebrate World Book Day. We hope that the children have all enjoyed spending their book vouchers and celebrating all things books. We have been delighted that the Children's Book Project donated us more books which have meant that all of the children have been able to choose two books to keep. We also loved seeing everyone in their creative t-shirts! Thank you so much for encouraging the children to take part. Our Stars that SHINE this week are our t-shirt winners for their class. To top off the day, we also held a 'Multilingual Storytelling' session for all the children to enjoy. Some of our older children read to Reception and Nursery, and the other children chose a story read by our staff. We are so proud how many different languages were on offer, and hope that the children really enjoyed it.

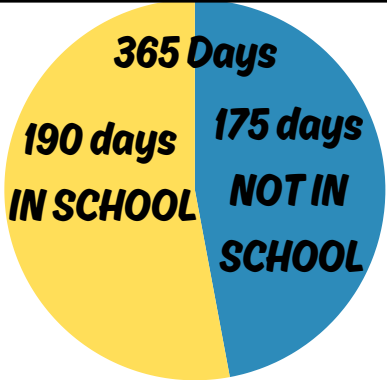

This week we also had an exciting 'Girls Active' visit to Memorial Park to get involved with the MLB and try their hand at baseball. They were lucky to get some great t-shirts, and we hope that they had a great time in the sunshine.

It has been wonderful seeing so many of you for our Carnival costume preparation, thank you for coming to help! We are all getting very excited for International Family Week. Your child will be coming home with a project this week which they are welcome to complete and share with their class. We really value our diverse community, and absolutely love the children coming in to share about their cultural heritage.

We wish you a lovely weekend

Mr Harris and Mrs Mansfield

Curwen Primary Celebrates World Book Day

What better way to honour World Book Day than by encouraging children to design their own book-inspired T-shirts?

Children selected their favorite story, character, or author and brought them to life on a T-shirt! They either decorated an old shirt or crafted a design on paper or card, which they then attached using safety pins.

As children paraded their creations, each child proudly shared the inspiration behind their design, sparking conversations about beloved tales and new adventures yet to be discovered.

The event not only celebrated the joy of reading but also fostered a sense of community and teamwork. Teachers noted how the activity encouraged children to think critically about the stories they read and to appreciate the diverse perspectives found within literature.

The event was a resounding success, leaving everyone eager for next year's World Book Day festivities and inspiring a renewed passion for reading.

Prospective families are welcome to arrange visits at any time.

Re Junior Conference

This week, a small group of Year 5 children attended the Newham RE Junior Conference where the theme was 'Belonging.' They read a story about belonging and compared the views of different religions on this topic. They also had the opportunity to interact with children from different primary schools across Newham and complete some fantastic team building and crafting activities.
