

Dear Parents and Carers

It feels like autumn has arrived! I would like to say a huge thank you, as with the weather up and down it has been so helpful that lots of children have their names in their jumpers and coats. Please do continue to check our lost property box though as it is still very full!

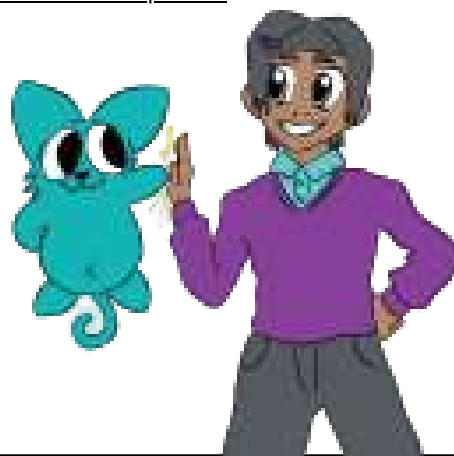

Next week we will be starting our 'World of Work Week' for years 2-6. We always hope that this will inspire the children to consider a range of different jobs they may be interested in when they leave school. We are also working hard to break down some of the stereotypes around which jobs should be completed by which types of people, particularly gender stereotypes. Please do speak to your child about what they are learning.

You will have received a message to advise you to book a parents' evening slot via Arbor. We are hoping that this makes it easier for parents to make a suitable appointment, and to check your time. Please remember this parents' evening is online and the Google Links will be sent on Studybugs nearer the time. Our February parents' evening will be held in person so that you can see your child's books.

If you have a child who will be starting Reception in September 2027, or have any friends with children of that age, then please do attend our open evenings. Details are available on the school website. A reminder as well to all of the parents of children in year 6 that the deadline for secondary applications is 31st October 2026. Please see our website for more information about applying for Reception or Year 6 - <https://www.curwen.newham.sch.uk/page/?title=Admissions&pid=65>

We hope that you have a lovely weekend!

Curwen's Participation in Clean Air Quality Initiative

Curwen was among the 25 primary schools in Newham that participated in the local air quality team. The London Clean Air Initiative has recently received funding from the BA Better World Community Fund to implement a fully funded program focused on environmental education and greening projects.

The Year 3 and 4 pupils participated in an assembly to find out more about air quality, health, active travel, and the significance of having green spaces.

Our more able Geography pupils engaged in an interactive lesson that covered topics such as climate action, biodiversity, and anti-idling, featuring an exciting role-play activity titled "Pollution to Solution - In Action!"

This experience culminated in these students collaborating with the clean air team and parents during a greening day, where they created raised beds and planted fruit trees and vegetables.

Our active participation in Newham's Air Quality Initiative not only enhanced pupil's awareness of environmental issues but also fostered a sense of community involvement and responsibility. The success of the programme highlights the importance of educational initiatives in driving positive change and securing a healthier future for all.

Curwen's Summer Pop Art Competition Celebrates Bold Local Talent

After a summer filled with marker pens, vibrant neon paints, and meticulously crafted hand-drawn typography, our Pop Art Competition has reached a spectacular conclusion.

Inspired by the iconic Andy Warhol, participants transformed their summer holidays into artistic endeavours, turning blank A3 and A4 canvases into stunning graphic creations.

Bold comic-book sound effects took centre stage, featuring hand-lettered expressions like CRACKLE! POP! and SPLASH! bursting forth in electric yellows, hot pinks, and deep cyan.

Beyond just the winners, every participant showcased remarkable dedication throughout the summer weeks. By avoiding digital shortcuts and relying solely on pen, paper, and their imagination, this year's artists demonstrated that the spirit of Pop Art is not only alive but bolder than ever.

Prospective families are welcome to arrange visits at any time.
